Morena is hired by the textile company owned by the brothers Lucio and Aldo Sirenia. Her debut at the company will be stirred when Leo shows up at the Sirenia Corporate office. His uncle Lucio immediately recognizes the young man; he knows he is a Sirenia. Unfortunately, uncle Aldo – his mother's murderer – sees in the young man a threat to his wicked interests in the company. His real father, Flavio Sirenia, whom everyone assumed dead did in fact survive a devastating fire but is disfigured, amnesiac and ending the streets.

Pasión Morena, the tale of a romance that blossomed within a magical place that stood as its only witness.

Leo breaks the news about his identity to Morena; he is a Sirenia but needs to prove it. Morena's love makes her support Leo even if this will mean going against Silvia, her own mother. Silvia wants Morena to leave the city and thus prevent her to find out that Roberto Cardenas, the man accused of killing Victoria – Leo's mother –, is in fact her father.

Morena and Leo struggle day and night in their pursuit of happiness. However, the return of Oscar – Morena's ex fiancé – turns everything upside down as he is determined to win Morena back. On the other hand and following Aldo's advice, unscrupulous Cassandra is more than willing to do whatever it takes to separate the couple so she can have Leo.

Aldo Sirenia sees in Oscar a potential ally therefore he decides to help him with Morena. By doing so, Aldo's power and richness will be out of reach from the hands of the principal heir of the family empire: Leo. Aldo's ambition is so uncanny that he involves Leo in the assassination of Morena's grandfather so this buries their love altogether.

Even when their enemies unite against them and the greed of many is way too strong, Morena and Leo will stand together until the end. With love for one another as cornerstone they shall manage to build a bridge between their worlds.
